

Cultural Alliance of Greater Washington Board Candidates for FY2010
Vote for all, print, sign and return by fax 202-638-3388 by 09/21/09

New Board members have a one year renewable term

___ Michael Mael, Director of Strategy and Finance of the Washington National Opera has extensive experience in the technology industry where he held positions in MCI's finance and marketing organizations and was one of the team leaders that created and launched MCI Commercial Internet products. A former consultant for symphony orchestras, prior to his current position, Michael worked for the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra as Vice President of the BSO at Strathmore where he was responsible for managing all activities related to the BSO's second home at the new Music Center at Strathmore in North Bethesda, MD including Public Relations and Community Outreach. Michael is currently the President of Leadership Montgomery.

___ Amy Marshall, Managing Director, of the newly expanded Olney Theatre Center oversees all administrative functions including development, marketing, and finance. Formerly with the Milwaukee Ballet Company in Wisconsin where she rose through the ranks from Company Manager to Executive Director, expanded donor gifts, and maintained a balanced budget for three consecutive years increasing the Milwaukee Ballet's profitability and visibility.

___ Kathy Dwyer Southern, President and CEO, National Children's Museum is leading a $182 million capital campaign to support the development of the new National Children's Museum scheduled to open in 2013 at National Harbor. For over 35 years, Kathy has provided leadership to major museums, cultural and philanthropic organizations, associations, and government in the Washington region. She was formerly the Executive Director of James Madison's Montpelier, as well as of the National Cultural Alliance. Kathy has worked with the Eugene and Agnes E. Meyer Foundation, Federated Arts Council of Richmond, Virginia, and the Smithsonian Institution. From 1977-1978, Ms. Southern served as Vice President and Founding Member of the Board of Directors for the Cultural Alliance of Greater Washington.

___ Natalie A. Trunow, Senior Vice President, Equities, joined Calvert in August 2008 as Head of Equities. Prior to joining Calvert, she was employed by General Motors Asset Management (GMAM) for 11 years. At GMAM she was a Portfolio Manager in the Global Public Markets Group and the Global Equities Group after starting as an Investment Analyst and Fund Manager, U.S. Equities. Natalie had broad asset management and staff development responsibilities at GMAM, including developing and managing a long-only small cap growth strategy and an alternative investments fund of funds strategy and management of the firm's multi-manager emerging markets fund. Ms. Trunow's prior work experience includes consulting work at Owens & Davis and PriceWaterhouseCoopers.

Board terms up for renewal

Term to 2010

___ Barbara Arm Funk, Maryland National Capital Parks and Planning Commission

___ Peter Wolk, Center for Nonprofit Law

Term to 2011

___ Arnie Lutzker, Lutzker & Lutzker

___ Scott DeMartino, Nixon Peabody

___ Michelle Goland, American Express

___ Michele Hagans, Fort Lincoln Realty

Print Name _____ Organization _____

Signature _____ Date _____